Full Course Title

Course Code

I declare that I have read and understand my obligations under the Ozone Protection and Synthetic Greenhouse Gas Management Regulations 1995.

By signing this declaration, I acknowledge and confirm the following:

- A trainee is entitled to carry out work in relation to Refrigeration and Air Conditioning (RAC) equipment while undertaking the training or assessment for which the licence was granted.
- This work must be performed under the supervision of a licence holder who is entitled to engage in the same scope of work for which the trainee is being trained or assessed.
- Work in relation to RAC equipment includes any activity involving a refrigerant that carries a risk of emission.
- I am responsible for ensuring that any work carried out by the trainee licensee is performed in accordance with the standards set out in Table 135, Column 2 that relate to the work.
